A Sculpture Trail
At Laurelwood Arboretum

Using art to connect people with nature

ABOUT

A Sculpture Trail features representative works from notable artists from around the country. Our Curator, Scott A. Broadfoot, has thoughtfully selected and creatively placed 15 sculptures with consideration to the arboretum’s varied plant life, water features and natural light. Visitors will find that each season provides a unique backdrop to the art. All art is for sale through an exclusive agreement with Broadfoot & Broadfoot, A Collection of Fine Art.

A portion of the proceeds are being donated back to the arboretum and will be applied to a capital improvement project.

PARTICIPATING ARTISTS

There are 15 talented artists who are currently participating in this project, each of whom has a rich and diverse portfolio of work, education and experience. The artists range in age, gender, and geographic region. A variety of mediums like natural stone, clay, metals and acrylic have been used to create these unique sculptures.

PURCHASE

If you’re interested in purchasing a sculpture or would like more information contact Scott A. Broadfoot, gallery owner of Broadfoot & Broadfoot, A Collection of Fine Art located in Boonton, NJ at (646) 808-7470 or at broadfootandbroadfoot@yahoo.com. In addition to full-size sculptures, tabletop works are available by many of the same, participating artists. Our pop-up gallery will be open on Saturday and Sunday between the hours of 12-4 PM from November 19 through December 18, 2022.

BECOME A VALUED SPONSOR

There are many available sponsorship opportunities including becoming a site sponsor (once a sculpture is sold, a comparable work will be selected and substituted at that site), education, and special events. Additionally, digital ads are available in our ever-lasting, online journal. To support this special project, go to: laurelwoodarboretum.org/sculpture-trail/support-us/ or to donate online visit: gofund.me/4ca997b5.
