Abel Mireles & LatiNext

www.abelmireles.com/

Abel Mireles is gaining a reputation as one of the most promising saxophonists of his generation across the New York metropolitan area. Influenced by his Mexican American roots, the LatiNext project is a blend of Mexican folkloric music and jazz. An accomplished musician, composer, educator and entrepreneur, Mireles received his Masters in Jazz Performance from William Paterson University. Members of LatiNext include Oscar Perez (piano), Marcos Varela (bass), Rodrigo Recabarren (drums), and special guest Candice Reyes (vocals).
